<sup>1</sup> The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) requires ARPA-E applicants to submit a concept paper as the first step of the application process. In order to submit a full application, applicants must receive notification from DOE on the concept paper. DOE will receive concept papers from May 12, 2009 to June 9, 2009. The Energy Commission will consider applications on a rolling basis, in accordance with the federal timeline. Please include a copy of the concept paper with the pre-proposal.

<sup>2</sup> Applications must submit full applications to DOE 31 days after notification of DOE's concept paper determination. The Energy Commission final proposals will be due 7 working days after full applications are due to the DOE.

<sup>3</sup> Awards will be made within ninety (90) days of the full application deadline.
